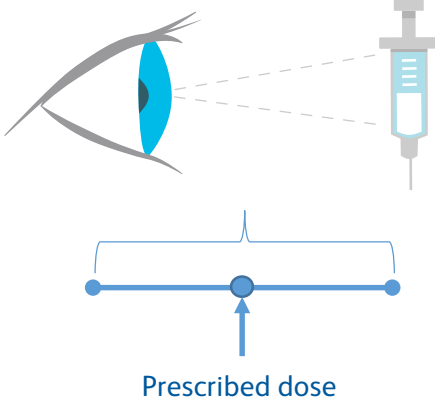
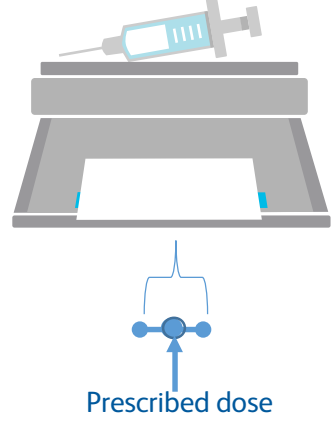
Volumetric preparation



Volumetric analysis—utilizing the markings on a syringe to visually measure the amount of liquid being added or removed during IV compounding.

Gravimetric preparation



Gravimetric analysis—the process of utilizing a known specific gravity to quantitatively determine the amount of a substance based on measured weight.